Adventism and Catholicism in a Changing World

Can they learn from each other?

Reinder Bruinsma, PhD

Rev. Romanus Ike

Denis Fortin, PhD

Speakers:

The Seventh-day Adventist and Roman Catholic Churches have had a turbulent relationship through the years. But in today's world many people see them as having much more in common than what separates them. The panel will explore the intriguing question of what the two churches can learn from each other and what that might imply for the future. Reinder Bruinsma will premier his new book on the topic at the close of the program.
