Journeys North: Stories of Adventure from America's Pacific Crest Trail

Barney "Scout" Mann, JD

Author and Adventurer

National Geographic Magazine: "Arguably the dean of America's long-distance trails"

Legendary thru-hiker Barney "Scout" Mann tells a compelling story of six people as they hike from Mexico to Canada. Their stories on the Pacific Crest Trail reveal the universality of our humanity, what it means to belong, the incredible resilience of the human spirit, and the transformative potential of exploring America's great outdoors.

- Hear a captivating story of six hikers as they journey from Mexico to Canada on the Pacific Crest Trail.
- Navigate a world of aches, pains and injuries through the eyes of a newly minted medical professional on the Pacific Crest Trail. Do you tell? Do you help? What are the boundaries?
- Explore the spirit of resilience as the hiking group faces once-in-a-generation severe drought, winter storms, shattered bones, helicopter rescues and more.
- Consider nature's power to connect people together in deep friendship, transforming lives in America's great outdoors.
